The appointment of Patron shall normally be for an indefinite period.

2. On the recommendation of the Executive Committee the Annual General Meeting may be invited to approve the appointment of an honorary President who shall usually be a person of some standing in the literary world. The term of office of the President shall normally be 5 (five) years but may be extended subject to the approval of the Annual General Meeting.

3. On the recommendation of the Executive Committee, the Annual General Meeting may be invited to approve the appointment of honorary Vice-Presidents. This title may be conferred on an individual in recognition of exceptional service to the Society or otherwise to the furtherance of the Society’s Aims and Objectives. The term of office of the Vice-President shall normally be 5 (five) years but may be extended subject to the approval of the Annual General Meeting. There shall be no more than 5 (five) Vice-Presidents at any time.

4. The Executive Committee may from time to time appoint additional Non-Executive Officers to carry out specific functions as they may agree. For example: Membership Secretary, Archivist, Events Officer, Public Relations Officer. Such appointments shall be reviewed annually.

H. Executive Officers and Executive Committee

1. The Trustees shall appoint from amongst themselves a Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer who shall be the honorary Executive Officers of the Charity. Such appointments shall be made annually, normally at the first Executive Committee meeting following the Annual General Meeting.

2. The Executive Committee shall consist of the elected Trustees of the Charity plus co-opted members as laid out in clause 3 below.

3. The Executive Committee may appoint not more than 3 (three) co-opted members but so that no-one may be appointed as a co-opted member if, as a result, more than one third of the members of the Executive Committee would be co-opted members.

4. The Trustees may invite the Non-Executive Officers of the Charity to attend Executive Committee meetings in an advisory and non-voting capacity.

5. The Non-Executive Officers and co-opted members of the Executive Committee shall not be Trustees of the Society unless elected as Trustees as laid out in clause F.1 above.

6. The proceedings of the Executive Committee shall not be invalidated by any vacancy among their number or by any failure to appoint or any defect in the appointment or qualification of a member.

7. Nobody shall be appointed to or elected as a member of the Executive Committee who is aged under 18 (eighteen) years or who would if appointed be disqualified under the provisions of the following clause.

8. The majority of members of the Executive Committee must be UK citizens ordinarily resident in England or Wales.

9. No person shall be entitled to act as a member of the Executive Committee whether on a first or on any subsequent entry into office until having signed in the minute book of the Executive Committee a declaration of acceptance and of willingness to act in the interests of the Charity.

10. A member of the Executive Committee shall cease to hold office if he or she:
   a. Is disqualified from acting as a member of the Executive Committee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993, Charities Act 2006 or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision;
   b. Becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering his or her own affairs;
   c. Is absent without the permission of the Executive Committee from all their meetings held within a period of six months and the Executive Committee resolve that his or her office be vacated; or
   d. Notifies to the Executive Committee that they wish to resign (but only if at least three members of the Executive Committee will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect).

I. Executive Committee Members Not To Be Personally Interested

1. No member of the Executive Committee shall acquire any interest in property belonging to the Charity (otherwise than as a trustee for the Charity) or receive remuneration or be interested (otherwise than as a member of the Executive Committee) in any contract entered into by the Executive Committee.

J. Meetings and Proceedings of the Executive Committee

1. The Executive Committee shall hold at least two ordinary meetings each year.

2. A special meeting may be called at any time by the Chairman or by any 2 (two) members of the Executive Committee upon not less than 4 (four) days’ notice being given to the other members of the Executive Committee of the matters to be discussed.

3. The Chairman shall act as Chairman at meetings of the Executive Committee. If the Chairman is absent from any meeting, the members of the Executive Committee present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting before any other business is transacted.
4. There shall be a quorum when at least one third of the number of members of the Executive Committee for the time being or three members of the Executive Committee, whichever is the greater, are present at a meeting.

5. Every matter shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members of the Executive Committee present and voting on the question but in the case of equality of votes the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

6. The Executive Committee shall keep minutes, in books kept for the purpose, of the proceedings at meetings of the Executive Committee and any sub-committee.

7. The Executive Committee may from time to time make and alter rules for the conduct of their business, the summoning and conduct of their meetings and the custody of documents. No rule may be made which is inconsistent with this constitution.

8. The Executive Committee may appoint one or more sub-committees consisting of three or more members of the Executive Committee for the purpose of making any inquiry or supervising or performing any function or duty which in the opinion of the Executive Committee would be more conveniently undertaken or carried out by a sub-committee: provided that all acts and proceedings of any such sub-committees shall be fully and promptly reported to the Executive Committee.

K. Receipts and Expenditure
1. The funds of the Charity, including all donations contributions and bequests, shall be paid into an account operated by the Executive Committee in the name of the Charity at such bank as the Executive Committee shall from time to time decide.

2. All cheques drawn on the Charity’s account must be signed by at least two designated members of the Executive Committee unless the Executive Committee has agreed a limit below which only a single signature is required.

3. The funds belonging to the Charity shall be applied only in furthering the Objects of the Charity.

L. Property
1. Subject to the provisions of sub-clause 2 of this clause, the Executive Committee shall cause the title to:
   a. All land held by or in trust for the Charity which is not vested in the official Custodian for Charities; and
   b. all investments held by or on behalf of the Charity to be vested either in a corporation entitled to act as custodian trustee or in not less than three individuals appointed by them as holding trustees. Holding trustees may be removed by the Executive Committee at their pleasure and shall act in accordance with the lawful directions of the Executive Committee. Provided they act only in accordance with the lawful directions of the Executive Committee, the holding trustees shall not be liable for the acts and defaults of its members.

2. If a corporation entitled to act as custodian trustee has not been appointed to hold the property of the Charity, the Executive Committee may permit any investments held by or in trust for the Charity to be held in the name of a clearing bank, trust corporation or any stockbroking company which is a member of the International Stock Exchange (or any subsidiary of any such stockbroking company) as nominee for the Executive Committee, and may pay such a nominee reasonable and proper remuneration for acting as such.

M. Accounts
1. The Executive Committee shall comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 1993 and the Charities Act 2006 or any statutory re-enactment or modification of those Acts with regard to the preparation of an annual report and its transmission to the Commission.

N. Annual Report
1. The Executive Committee shall comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 1993 and the Charities Act 2006 or any statutory re-enactment or modification of those Acts with regard to the preparation of an annual report and its transmission to the Commission.

O. Annual Return
1. The Executive Committee shall comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 1993 and the Charities Act 2006 or any statutory re-enactment or modification of those Acts with regard to the preparation of an annual return and its transmission to the Commission.

P. Annual General Meeting
1. There shall be an Annual General Meeting of the Charity which shall be held in the month of October in each year or as soon as practicable thereafter.

2. Every Annual General Meeting shall be called by the Executive Committee. The Secretary shall give at least 28 (twenty-eight) days’ notice of the annual general meeting to all the members of the Charity. All the members of the Charity shall be entitled to attend and vote at the meeting.

3. The Chairman of the Charity shall be the Chairman of Annual General Meetings, but if he or she is not present, before any other business is transacted, the persons present shall appoint a Chairman of the meeting.

4. The Executive Committee shall present to each Annual General Meeting the report and accounts of the Charity for the preceding year.

5. All voting shall be by a show of hands or, if demanded, by ballot, with a requirement for a simple majority. In the event of a tied vote the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

6. Notwithstanding the above clause, the Executive Committee shall have the powers to arrange for members to vote by proxy at any Annual or Extraordinary General Meeting.

Q. Special General Meetings
1. The Executive Committee may call a special general meeting of the Charity at any time. If at least 10 (ten) members request such a meeting in writing stating the business to be considered the Secretary shall call such a meeting. At least 28 (twenty-eight) days’ notice must be given. The notice must state the business to be discussed.

2. The Chairman of the Charity shall be the Chairman of special general meetings, but if he or she is not present, before any other business is transacted, the persons present shall appoint a Chairman of the meeting.

R. Procedure at General Meetings
1. The Secretary or other person specially appointed by the Executive Committee shall keep a full record of proceedings at every general meeting of the Charity.

2. There shall be a quorum when at least one-tenth of the number of members of the Charity for the time being or 10 (ten) members of the Charity, whichever is the greater, are present at any general meeting or have submitted valid votes by proxy (if such be in force).

3. Should there be no quorum at any meeting then the meeting will be rearranged for a date not more than 3 (three) calendar months later.

S. Notices
1. Any notice required to be served on any member of the Charity shall be in writing and shall be served by the Secretary on any member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to such member at his or her last known address. Any letter so sent shall be deemed to have been received within 21 (twenty-one) days of posting.

T. Alterations to the Constitution
1. Subject to the following provisions of this clause the Constitution may be altered by a resolution passed by not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting, or voting by proxy (if such be in force), at a general meeting. The notice of the general meeting must include notice of the resolution, setting out the terms of the alteration proposed.

2. No amendment may be made to clause A, clause C, clause I, clause U or this clause without the prior consent in writing of the Charity Commission.

3. No amendment may be made which would have the effect of making the Charity cease to be a charity at law.

4. The Executive Committee should promptly send to the Charity Commission a copy of any amendment made under this clause.

U. Dissolution
1. If the Executive Committee decides that it is necessary or advisable to dissolve the Charity it shall call a meeting of all members of the Charity, of which not less than 28 (twenty-eight) days’ notice (stating the terms of the resolution to be proposed) shall be given. If the proposal is confirmed by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting, or voting by proxy (if such be in force), the Executive Committee shall have power to realise any assets held by or on behalf of the Charity. Any assets remaining after the satisfaction of any proper debts and liabilities shall be given or transferred to such other charitable institution or institutions having aims and objectives similar to the Objects of the Charity as the members of the Charity may determine or failing that shall be applied for some other charitable purpose. A copy of the statement of accounts, or account and statement, for the final accounting period of the Charity, must be sent to the Charity Commission.
